

Saralee Etter

So charming and disarming....it's alarming!

A stay-at-home mom (SAHM) by day and romance writer by night, I have been a member of the Central Ohio Fiction Writers and the Romance Writers of America for the past 4 years.

A LIMITED ENGAGEMENT was the second of three manuscripts that I wrote before making the leap to published author.

As for my work history, I retired from the practice of law in 1996, when I moved to Ohio. I've also done public relations consulting, local newspaper reporting, and have also worked as a legislative lobbyist.

I live in Central Ohio with my husband, my son, and a cranky old black cat.